

JEBE | Letter from the Editor

Greetings JEBE Readers!

Welcome to the second, 2018 edition of the Journal for Excellence in Business & Education. You may have noticed a minor change with significant meaning in the title of our journal as we have inserted ‘&’ between Business and Education. Since our journal is devoted to excellence in both, we wanted to accurately represent our inclusiveness. In this issue, you will find suggestions for determining which elements of politics to include in a college business curriculum and strategies for nudging students toward timeliness, encouraging active learning, teaching personal competencies and skills, and developing apprenticeships as paths for the STEM workforce.

Thank you to all those who submitted, reviewed and revised manuscripts for this edition. We hope you will continue to consider JEBE as a venue for your work.
